

Preparation for your White Paper Proposal Presentation

Agenda

Key Dates for the deliverables

Concept Notes Presentation - expectations and requirements

Recitations

Key Dates

1. March 13th & 20th - 2 sessions (12 students each)
 - Present your Concept Notes of your White Paper
 - Submit your slide deck by March 12th 11.59pm
2. April 17th & 24th - 2 sessions (12 students each)
 - Present your completed White Paper
 - Submit your slide deck by April 16th 11.59pm
3. Final White Paper submission April 16th 11.59 pm
4. April 3rd Course Review Quiz (non-technical aspects)

- Three slides only + 1 slide of references

1. Background / Problem / Contribution
2. Methodology (compare to other research done – showing how yours is different)
3. Expected outcomes

- 5 minutes (strict timing) + up to 2 mins Q/A

Final written White Paper

- It consists of the following sections:
- Title
- Abstract
- Introduction
- Objectives
- Methodology
- Expected outcomes
- Timeline
- References

Leveraging GEN AI

- ▶ How do you feel if I tell you I will share a Pittsburgh approved Gen AI platform for you to leverage ethically to enhance the quality of your White Paper writing task?

Picture: Google Image

In the coming weeks

- ▶ Holding weekly recitation session on Tuesdays to work on the White Paper + Presentations
- ▶ ‘Trial’ the Gen AI platform